Culinary Delights

Fresh Bar Harbor dining that reflects the region is the order of the day at the Harborside. Guests can feast on authentic Italian delicacies at the La Bella Vita Ristorante or sample premium vintage and tapas-style small plates at Enoteca Wine Bar. For light fare and handcrafted cocktails, the Splash Pool Bar is a perfect option for a more casual setting. And for the quintessential Maine lobster experience, complete with homemade blueberry pie, there is Stewman's Lobster Pound, located adjacent to the resort with scenic water views.

The Destination

Bar Harbor, Maine may be a quaint seaside village, but visitors to this world-famous locale can enjoy an endless variety of Maine activities on both land and sea. From exploring the miles of hiking and biking trails in Acadia National Park to sailing on a windjammer cruise or lobstering on an authentic Down East-style lobster boat, there is something for everyone. Guests interested in the unique history of Bar Harbor can enjoy the town's numerous museums, as well as its quaint shops and waterfront restaurants.

Fun Fact

The Bar Harbor Club, available to guests of the hotel, was built by J.P. Morgan in 1929 and has been lovingly resorted to its former, historic glory.

Insider Tip

The Bar Harbor Kid's Club is available to kids ages 5-12 and provides a multitude of fun activities and adventures for children while parents relax and enjoy some alone time.
